Itinerary

This itinerant trip offers you the possibility to discover the Pink Granite Coast in a few days by passing through charming towns, towns of character. Your stay starts in Lannion, capital of the Trégor, a city with traditional and original architecture. You continue to Perros-Guirec, one of the most famous seaside resorts, where you will have the choice between a walk along a seaside path or a swim at the crossroads of la Manche, the Celtic Sea and the Atlantic. Finally, your itinerary ends in Paimpol, a small coastal town. Your last day offers you the opportunity to discover an extraordinary natural site: the Island of Bréhat, the first classified natural site in France.

Day 1

Lannion - Perros-Guirec

Bike
36km

Ride along the coast towards Perros-Guirec, the seaside resort of the Côtes d'Amor. After pedaling for a while, take the high ground at Trébeurden and admire the Pointe de Bihit, from there, you will see all the shades of blue you won't see elsewhere. On the way, don't miss the opportunity to stretch your legs in the white sandy beaches, why not even take a dip in the water if the weather permits.

Day 2

Bike
28km

You leave Perros-Guirec and ride along the sea for a few kilometers. Then pedal on small country roads and even enjoy the coolness of the forest at a certain moment. You arrive in Tréguier, capital of Trégor, from the Passerelle Saint-François. Follow the narrow streets and half-timbered houses which give all the charm to this ancient city.

Day 3

Tréguier - Paimpol

You continue your journey on the Vélomaritime, still criss-crossing the small country roads through the small villages of the Côte d'Armor. You will reach Paimpol and its seaport. You may be tempted by an ice cream on the terrace while admiring the boats, or rather a stroll in the city center.

Bike
22km

Day 4

Day on Brehat Island

For this last day, put away your bikes and bring good shoes to go on Brehat Island. Ten minutes of boat will be enough to arrive on this island full of history, where cars are not allowed. 3,5km long, Brehat offers you the possibility to walk and to swim in small creeks, if the tides allow it.
