Itinerary

Discover the beauty of Camargue from Arles to Avignon and its lively streets, passing through "Pont du Gard".

Cycle between cities full of cultural heritage and wild nature in Camargue.

Ride along vineyards and reach Nîmes, a Roman city full of surprises. This route will lead you to Remoulins, a pretty village close to "Pont du Gard", the famous Roman bridge. You can enjoy a canoe ride on the Gard to discover the bridge, an unforgettable experience! The tour ends in Avignon, listed in the UNESCO world heritage.

Day 1

Arrival in Arles

Arrival in the city of Van Gogh. Enjoy a stroll into the streets to discover its Roman heritage and relax in your accommodation.

Day 2

Arles loop

Bike
33km

You can choose between two loops. The first loop will show you some bulls and horses inside the wild Camargue. The second loop, which is largest, will lead you inside the Camargue until you reach Vaccarès pond. Enjoy the wild life of this area.

Bike
44km

The longest loop will lead you towards Vaccarès pond. You will observe a lot of different birds and animals there.

Day 3

Arles-Nîmes

This morning, you leave Arles and cycle on the small roads of Camargue until you reach

Bike
50km

the village of Saint Gilles and its olive grove. Ride through the vineyards and have a break to taste the famous wine of " Costières de Nîmes". You will cross some small villages typical from this area but also some vineyards. At the end of the day, you arrive in Nîmes, a beautiful city full of promises.

Day 4

Nîmes-Remoulins

Bike
30km

Let's go to the "Pont du Gard" today! Take your bike and go out of the ancient city of Nîmes. You will pass through traditional villages and cycle into the nature to reach the pretty village of Remoulins. Remoulins is the entrance of the "Pont du Gard" visit.

Day 5

Remoulins

Take a walk into the small village of Remoulins located very close to the famous "Pont du Gard". At your own pace, discover the most visited ancient monument of France, which aimed to deliver water from Uzès to Nîmes. You can ride to the bridge on your bike and coming down the river in canoes, a wonderful experience!

You also can discover the bridge only by bike or visit the surroundings and beautiful villages such as Uzès.

Day 6

Remoulins-Avignon

Bike
38km

Take the cyclable path and enjoy the green nature along the Rhone river. The ViaRhôna will lead you to Avignon, a city full of cultural treasures and being famous for its "Pont d'Avignon" and for its "Palais des Papes". Do not miss the visit!

Day 7

Departure from Avignon

Enjoy a last walk in the streets of Avignon and visit the Palais des Papes before your departure or you can extend your stay.
